About the College

This college was established in the year 2014 as Government College Mokhra for providing quality education in the vast and unserved rural areas in the hinterland of Rohtak City. Later on, Government College Mokhra was renamed as Sakshi Malik Government College for Girls, Mokhra after the daughter of Mokhra, Olympian and Medal winner wrestler Sakshi Malik.

College is engaged in providing education to girls in and around Mokhra village and it has Arts faculty with English, Hindi, History, Political Science and Geography as subjects. Girls from this college have not only earned name and fame in education; they have also won medals in University and State Level sports event. Students also take active participation in programmes organized by National Service Scheme (NSS), Women Cell and activities organized by other Cells and Committees in the college. This college is recognized by the UGC under section 2 (f) of the UGC Act, 1956 and it is affiliated to the Maharshi Dayanand University, Rohtak. It has world class facilities for teaching-learning process in the form of large and modern building, air conditioned and spacious Library, fully-functional Computer Lab, and dedicated seminar hall with multi-media teaching-learning tools.
